RCSI Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery

WELCOME MESSAGE

The RCSI Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery hosts an annual international research and education conference every spring. The conference is one of the longest running conferences of its kind in Europe.

The 45th Annual International Nursing and Midwifery Research and Education Conference will take place in Dublin on 25 and 26 February 2026. A masterclass and the Annual Conference Dinner will be held on Wednesday, 25 February, with the conference taking place on Thursday, 26 February.

Attendees at the conference will include senior leaders, policy makers, clinicians, researchers and educators from Ireland and internationally.

ABOUT THE FACULTY OF NURSING AND MIDWIFERY

Established in 1974, the RCSI Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery plays a pivotal role in leading and supporting the development of the nursing and midwifery professions nationally and internationally.

This is achieved through the delivery of transformative learning experiences, impactful research in the areas of professional development and supporting the contribution of nurses and midwives to healthcare and societal well-being. The Faculty's Strategic Plan (2024-2027) identified the following priorities;

- Empowering lifelong learning and professional excellence in nursing and midwifery
- Innovative research for impactful practice and health systems improvement
- Creating a thriving and engaged community of fellows and members; and committing to embed equality, diversity and inclusion
- Building strategic partnerships and alliances for lasting impact
- A trusted brand for education, research and advocacy

THEMES & TOPICS OF THE 45TH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL NURSING AND MIDWIFERY CONFERENCE

Aligned to the RCSI University of Medicine and Health Sciences Strategic Plan 2023-2027, the theme of this year's conference is 'Nursing and Midwifery: Transforming Traditions, Evolving Systems, Redefining Healthcare.'

SUB-THEMES: Throughout the conference, we'll explore topics including;

Digital Disruption: Harnessing AI and Technology for Patient-Centred Care (Smart tech, human touch)

- Gaps in digital infrastructure and interoperability of health records
- Ethical issues in AI-driven diagnosis and genetic testing
- Escalating expenses or cost savings from new technologies
- Smarter ways to provide care or enable self-care

Breaking Barriers: Redesigning Systems for Equity and Access (Health without borders)

- Language and cultural gaps between providers and patients
- Stigma around mental health, communicable diseases, and certain disabilities
- Unequal distribution of care
- Care delivered closer to, or in, the home
- Social prescribing and community-based resources

Integrating Environmental Responsibility into Care Models (Healthy people, healthy planet)

- Increasing rates of diabetes, cardiovascular disease, cancer, and obesity
- Lifestyle factors such as poor diet, physical inactivity, tobacco, alcohol, stress
- Long-term treatment needs and effect on healthcare budgets
- Climate-driven migration affecting health access and stability

Transformative Practice: Innovating for a Resilient and Adaptive Workforce (Future-ready, patient-focused)

- Global shortage nurses, midwives, and allied health professionals
- Lateral violence, bullying, incivility
- Burnout and high turnover
- Corruption or inefficiency in health resource allocation
- Growing demand for long-term care, care of the elderly expertise, and palliative care
- Educational needs of health workers
- Recognising the value of health workers

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

DELEGATE BAG €800

Partner with us and boost your brand visibility with the 45th Annual International Nursing and Midwifery Research and Education Conference delegate bag. Become a partner for the delegate bag and take advantage of unparalleled exposure opportunities.

SAMPLE BAG

The delegate bag is one of the most visible sponsorship opportunities, as it's given to every attendee at the event. Your brand will be prominently displayed on a high-quality bag that participants will use not only during the event but potentially long after, providing extended exposure.

Delegate bags are often reused by attendees, meaning your brand continues to gain visibility beyond the event. This lasting presence reinforces brand recognition and keeps your company top-of-mind for delegates long after the conference ends.

As the sponsor, you can include branded materials or promotional items inside the bags, ensuring that every participant directly interacts with your brand. This is an excellent opportunity to introduce new products, share exclusive offers, or provide valuable resources.

Sponsoring the delegate bag associates your brand with the quality and value of the event itself. It signifies a commitment to supporting the professional community, enhancing your reputation as a key player in the industry.

The delegate bag sponsorship is an exclusive opportunity, giving your brand the spotlight without competition. This exclusivity enhances the impact of your sponsorship, ensuring your brand stands out to all attendees.
